Experience

Not all learning takes place in the classroom. Leveraging our wide range of corporate connections, undergraduate degrees at the Canary Islands Business School are also about the experience, enabling students to apply their learning.

Whether its visits to major companies or internships in tourism and hospitality, oil and gas exploration, logistics and supply chain in a busy port operation, or leading NGOs such as the Red Cross or World Food Programme students will get exposure to business operations. Applying learning brings it to life, helping students think about their future careers.

Go beyond

At the Canary Islands Business School, the undergraduate business degree is more than a degree, it's an experience, an experience of different cultures, of being challenged to work and study in different environments and one that leads to a host of new opportunities.

The degree combines a good balance between theory, real life and personal experience, to deliver successful outcomes. And more, it all takes place in the fantastic, safe environment of the Canary Islands.

Located in the heart of Las Palmas, the capital of the Canary Islands, offering a great social life and incredible city beach. The school is located in Ciudad Jardin in the city, an area known for its history. Today, it is part of a city named the third best in Europe for digital and remote workers, recognised for its cosmopolitan lifestyle and multicultural influences, geographically located between Europe, the Americas and Africa.
