Go beyond

At the Canary Islands Business School, the undergraduate business degree is more than a degree, it's an experience, an experience of different cultures, of being challenged to work and study in different environments and one that leads to a host of new opportunities.

The degree combines a good balance between theory, real life and personal experience, to deliver successful outcomes. And more, it all takes place in the fantastic environment of the Canary Islands.

Located in the heart of Las Palmas, the capital of the Canary Islands, offering a great social life and incredible city beach. Today, it is part of a city named the third best in Europe for digital and remote workers, recognised for its cosmopolitan lifestyle and multicultural influences, geographically positioned between Europe, the Americas and Africa.

Study

Designed for tomorrow, an undergraduate degree at the Canary Islands Business School offers you more. Begin your studies in the wonderful environment of the Canary Islands, finish your degree with your third and final year in London, Paris, Quebec, Dublin, Bristol, Manchester or Sheffield. Gain an internationally recognised degree while experiencing a high quality of life.

Taught entirely in English, your studies at the Canary Islands Business School evolve with you. You'll have the opportunity to experience different subjects, before deciding what suits you best. Personalised counselling will help you decide where to head in your future career.

You could specialise in International Business, Marketing, Human Resources, Banking and Finance, International Business Communication, Luxury Management or another key area for skills in demand in careers.

Experience

Not all learning takes place in the classroom. Leveraging our wide range of corporate connections, undergraduate degrees at the Canary Islands Business School are also about the experience, enabling students to apply their learning.

Whether its visits to major companies or internships in tourism and hospitality, oil and gas exploration, logistics and supply chain in a busy port operation, or leading NGOs such as the Red Cross or World Food Programme, students will get exposure to business operations. Applying learning brings it to life, helping students think about their future careers.

Start

Language skills shouldn't be a barrier to your learning. If you don't yet meet the IELTS requirements, we will work with you over the next two years to improve your English skills. We want you to be ready to make the most of your learning experience in your final year of study with our partners.

Study fees are €7,000 for each year of study at CIBS. The price of your third year will be set by the partner University of your choice. Some of our partner Universities offer scholarships for CIBS students.
